When we think about the meaning of 'home', it represents all the best things in our human experience: comfort, stability, safety, memories.

For over 21 years we've welcomed over 350 clients into spaces that have redefined their ways of life, their identities, and their connection with family and community.

When our client walks through the door and sees their new life transformed, it is a moment both precious and powerful. For us at Sagewood, Welcome Home is the moment we live for. From our carpenters, to our painters, millworkers, cleaners and owners, Welcome Home not only marks a collective accomplishment, but it represents The Sagewood Way: our culture of building together, learning together, and achieving together.

It's a culture still deepening since our earliest days. After all, it's in The Sagewood Way where we ourselves find home.

And through this spirit is how we welcome you... Home.

IQ Concept is a revolutionary real estate development company dedicated to matching prime locations with market driven living solutions.
