MIAMI WORLD CENTER

MIAMI LIVING

Downtown Sophistication

Originally inspired by the famous Crosby Street in Soho, New York, the name The Crosby at Miami Worldcenter conjures feelings of cosmopolitan sophistication and speaks to the palpable energy of metropolitan intersections.

The Crosby places residents in the center of Miami's magic — offering unprecedented access to the city's urban forefront and cosmopolitan pulse.

The Crosby ushers in a new dynamic Miami lifestyle where the city's best dining, shopping and recreation is just a short walk away.

EXPLORE

Miami Worldcenter

Miami Worldcenter’s lifestyle-driven “high-street” retail component is the centerpiece of development’s 27-acre master plan, featuring approximately 300,000 square feet of retail, food and beverage, and entertainment space. An open-air shopping promenade runs North and South from Northeast 10th Street to Northeast 7th Street and between Northeast 1st and 2nd Avenues. A large public plaza will be surrounded by shops and restaurants, creating a central gathering place and outdoor event space. Miami Worldcenter’s development team has already completed 150,000 square feet of retail space, with another 130,000 square feet currently under construction and nearing delivery.

Avro|KO

Over the last two decades, AvroKO has earned a reputation as one of the most impactful and influential design firms in the hospitality field. Founded in 2001 by four partners - Kristina O'Neal, William Harris, Greg Bradshaw, and Adam Farmerie - the group is now operating with offices in New York City, San Francisco, London and Bangkok with over 200 employees. Their significant portfolio of critically-hailed interior design work expresses a humming conversation between the ideals of the past and off-beat sensibilities that point to the future, between cultural memory and social interaction, and between the physical, emotional, and psychological realms.
